ALBERTA BIBLE COLLEGE

Student Information and Technology Use Agreement

Computer, computer files, the e-mail system, internet access, and software furnished to employees and students, and all communications data or information created, stored, or transmitted are the property of Alberta Bible College (ABC), and intended for the sole purpose of accomplishing our mission "to equip people for effective service and witness for Christ".

The purpose of this agreement is to promote this mission, through helping to protect the integrity of both the human and technological resources of ABC.

Specific Policies, Privileges, Limitations, and Procedures:

1. User IDs and Passwords

ABC manages student information using Populi. After all registration information has been received, students receive an email with a link to create a password for their Populi Account. Students can edit their personal information and view their education information, such as courses and degrees using their user ID and password. Passwords are confidential and must be treated as such. Giving private passwords to others is strictly prohibited, except for purposes of technical assistance, or providing access to those who temporarily cover responsibilities. When a student leaves the College, his/her ID and password will remain in place unless ABC deems it necessary to terminate it.

2. Email and Internet Access

a. Email

ABC uses Google Apps, which is integrated with Populi. When a student creates their password for Populi they are automatically assigned a Google apps email address which will be used by faculty and staff in all communications. The password is the same as the Populi password that the student creates. When a student leaves the College, his/her email and password will remain in place unless ABC deems it necessary to terminate it.

b. Internet Use

No other person(s), other than employees, registered students, or permitted others, are allowed to use ABC internet connection.

c. Software installation

The College makes every attempt to provide the technology/informational tools required for students to have the tools necessary to facilitate sound learning. No ABC employee, contractor, or student may install any computer software on ABC equipment, including but not limited to software applications, screen savers, etc., without the express permission of the Learning Resource Centre staff.

3. Information Collection and Use

- a. Confidential information of any sort may only be collected and used within the parameters of ABC's Privacy Policy. Confidential information kept electronically, is kept secure by password. Confidential information on paper can be viewed at the general office and is stored in lockable vaults.
- b. Students collecting, analyzing, storing, or otherwise using data for human research, need to comply with the Ethical Standards for Human Research, as available in the Learning Resource Center.

To ensure compliance with this policy, Alberta Bible College reserves the right to monitor computer, e-mail, and internet usage, as proprietor. This right can only be exercised through the Privacy Policy administrator and the IT Administrator, under the supervision of the President. The IT Administrator operates without prejudice in relationship to the College. The ethical use of information technology tools, whether provided by ABC, or privately owned, by both students and employees, falls under the Community and Student Life Expectations of Alberta Bible College. This includes the critical matter of being careful with our speech, and how we treat people, to build them up and not tear them down. Gossip, bullying, or other forms of communication so destructive of community and human dignity, will not be tolerated in internet communications of any kind, for example, blogging, social networking sites (MSN, Facebook, etc.), or other electronic communication.

Non-compliance with the above provisions and limitations may lead to disciplinary action, including expulsion. This agreement is effective during the entire course of my study at ABC.

Alberta Bible College Community Rule of Life

1. We love God, the Church, other Christ-followers, our neighbours, and our enemies.
2. ABC students and faculty/staff worship together in chapel weekly (College program) and once per course (PACE). We also worship and serve regularly in our local churches. We engage Scripture and pray both in solitude and community.
3. We seek a continual awareness of the presence, activity, and voice of God in our lives and in the world.
4. We pursue excellence in whatever work God has called us to, fulfilling it with commitment and integrity. This includes our studies, our teaching and administrative duties, and our leadership responsibilities.
5. We honour God with our bodies by engaging in healthy patterns of eating, rest, and physical activity. To help us foster this practice, we do not abuse alcohol or misuse drugs.
6. We honour God's creation. In regards to the earth's natural resources, we reduce, reuse, and recycle. In regards to our time and financial resources, we are wise and generous.
7. We pursue holiness in all areas of life. This guides our entertainment choices regarding film, television, radio, the Internet, theatre, dance, and music.
8. We live chaste lives. That is, we practice sexual purity. We reject pornography or any other objectification of humans.
9. We use our words to encourage and build each other up. We speak directly to those with whom we have a concern. When others fail us, we extend forgiveness. When we fail others, we seek their forgiveness. Our use of technology and social media is guided by these values.
10. We submit to those in authority, unless their expectations are contrary to biblical truth.
11. We acknowledge that living in community is challenging, yet we sacrifice our individual liberty for the good of the community. When differences arise, we choose the course that demands greater personal restraint and self-discipline.

As a member of the ABC community, my desire is that these core values will become increasingly evident in my life. I choose to trust those in authority and Christian leadership to hold me accountable. I also acknowledge that non-compliance with the above could be sufficient reason to be asked to leave the college. This agreement is effective during the entire course of my participation in the ABC community.

Alberta Bible College Statement of Faith

Our commitment to the Christian faith is:

- That Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God, and, as such, is Head of His Body, the Church (Matt 16:16; Col 1:18);
- That He died to atone for the sins of all people and that He was raised from the dead for their justification (Rom 4:25);
- That people are justified by faith in Him according to the terms of the Gospel laid down in the New Testament (John 3:16; Acts 2:38; Rom 10:9-10);
- That the Holy Spirit lives in the Body of Christ, gifting Christians for ministry, and producing the fruit of the Spirit (I Cor 12:4; Gal 5:22-23);
- That the Bible is the inspired Word of God and that the New Testament is the all-sufficient guide for the teaching, organization, and life of the Church (II Tim 3:14-16);
- That the unity of all believers is Biblical Christianity (John 17:20; Eph 4:1-13); and
- That the mission of the Church worldwide is evangelism and Christian nurture (Matt 28:18-20).

I understand that this is ABC's Statement of Faith and I will respect it during the entire course of my participation in the ABC community.
